Dear Valued Suppliers,

Recently, our internal compliance risk investigation team has identified that certain suppliers submitted forged, altered, or falsely certified documents in the course of business engagement. Such acts are suspected of violating relevant national laws and regulations, including but not limited to the crimes of forging, altering, buying, or selling official documents, certificates, or seals of state authorities, as well as forging seals of companies, enterprises, institutions, or people's organizations.

We have activated our supplier blacklist management procedure for the involved parties and, with the support of local police authorities, have formally filed administrative and criminal cases to address these violations. This reflects our commitment to safegu arding the legitimate rights and interests of our company and shareholders.

To ensure fair and efficient cooperation, we hereby clarify the document submission standards and blacklist management rules:

1. Core Principle

Integrity is the foundation of cooperation. The submission of false, forged, or altered materials in any form is strictly prohibited. All provided information must be authentic and lawful.

2. Scope of Documents

This includes but is not limited to:

- Qualification documents: administrative permits, industry licenses, management system certifications, etc.
- Performance and credibility proofs: project contracts, customer references, audit reports, financial statements, etc.
- Product certifications: test reports, product certifications, authorization letters, certificates of origin, etc.
- Personnel information: ID documents, qualification certificates, social insurance proofs, team credentials, etc.

3. Important Notice

If any misconduct is identified—such as report tampering, digital manipulation (“P图”), forged seals/signatures, fake qualifications, or misrepresentation of others’ achievements, identity, or qualifications—the supplier will immediately be placed on our blacklist.

4. Blacklist Consequences

Blacklisted suppliers will be marked as “Disabled” in all our procurement systems (e.g., ERP, SRM, supplier database) and permanently barred from participating in any future bidding or business cooperation.

We urge all suppliers to adhere strictly to the principle of integrity and work with us to maintain a fair, transparent, and trustworthy partnership.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

Best regards,
Bohui Paper Purchasing
